A member of the Assam Civil Service will be granted the next higher Grade Pay along with corresponding allowances on promotion of requisite qualifying period with the current Grade Pay as mentioned in the table above, only if the officer has not been regularly promoted during the aforesaid period.

The financial upgradation is subject to the condition that there is no disciplinary or criminal proceeding against the officer.

An officer will be entitled to the immediate higher Grade Pay only, irrespective of the number of years by which he may have exceeded the requisite qualifying period within a particular Grade.

The placement of officers in the higher time scale of pay through financial upgradation will be purely on personal basis and will thus neither amount to functional or regular promotion and will not require creation of new posts for this purpose. The officer will be promoted to the next higher post only through regular process of promotion by Departmental Promotion Committee, as and when regular vacancies arise.

The benefits of Fixed Time Scale will come into effect from the date of issue of this notification.
